Canadian Tamil Congress stands in solidarity with Islamic Society of Markham

The Canadian Tamil Congress stands in solidarity with the Islamic Society of Markham following a suspected hate-motivated attack on April 6th. It is disconcerting that anyone would seek to harm individuals peacefully practicing their religion during such a sacred time.

Acts of hate have no place in our communities, and we strongly condemn such heinous actions. The Canadian Tamil Congress is committed to working together to create welcoming, inclusive and safe communities for all.

During this holy month of Ramadan, we'd like to express our solidarity with members of the Muslim faith and wish everyone strength, peace and comfort.
